

Voiceflex complaints code

At Voiceflex we take any complaint seriously and we will try to rectify anything you are unhappy with as quickly and professionally as possible. In this document we will try to make clear the process of making a complaint how you can expect it to be dealt with and how long typical complaints take to be resolved.

How do I make a complaint?

Voiceflex support staff are trained to deal with customer complaints as soon as they become aware of them and should be the first point of contact for any problems you experience with Voiceflex services. If for any reason you are unhappy with the service Voiceflex are providing you can contact our support teams in the following ways:

Phone

The easiest way to lodge a complaint is on the phone by calling our support desk on 020 3301 6000 and selecting option 1. Our Lines are open Monday to Friday 8am to 6pm. When logging a complaint via the phone our support engineers will try to resolve your problem during the call, if this is not possible they will log a ticket and escalate this as required to the relevant teams.

Email

Email complaints can be raised by sending an email to customerservices@voiceflex.com. Complaints emailed to this inbox will be responded to as soon as possible but always within 5 working days.

Post

Please write to:
Customer Relations department

Voiceflex
13 Bow Court
Fletchworth Gate
Coventry
CV5 6SP

We aim to reply to every complaint we receive by post to this address within 7 working days from receipt of the complaint.

What details do I need to include in my complaint?

Please include as much information as you can when raising your complaint as it will help us deal with it as quickly as possible. For example:

- Reason for the complaint
- The account the complaint relates to
- Your full name, address and post code

- Voiceflex Ltd, 13 Bow Court, Fletchworth Gate, Coventry, UK, CV5 6UB

- Date the problem first happened
- When the problem was reported and how
- Any ticket numbers raised relating to the problem
- Any other relevant correspondence

We aim to resolve all complaints within 20 working days from when you notify us but more complex cases may take longer.

How can I take the matter further?

If you feel that your complaint has not been resolved after speaking to one of our support engineers, you can request that the complaint is escalated, once escalated your case will be reviewed by senior management. You can request escalation by speaking to the support engineer on the ticket raised or by emailing escalations@voiceflex.com.

If we have still not managed to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction and we feel it is not possible to help you further or more than 40 days have passed, you can request or we may issue you with a “deadlock letter”. When you have received this letter from us you may wish to refer your complaint to one of the following two organisations. Office of Communications or Telecommunications Ombudsman. OFCOM will be more suited to helping larger organisations and the Telecommunications Ombudsman for smaller businesses.
